Dear Henry:

I have read your note upon my return from attending a Meeting of the Caribbean Commission in Barbados. It is very kind of you to remember me and I do hope that I may get in touch with you on my next trip to Washington and New York. I wish you the best of success in your private law practice. The opportunity of making your acquaintance has been one of the most encouraging results of my job here as Under Secretary of State.

With my best wishes to you and Mrs. Holland for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, I remain

Very sincerely,

ARTURO MORALES CARRION
