Dear friend:

I regret the delay in replying to your letter of February 21st, concerning my address at the Polytechnic Commencement.

I have been waiting to see the pamphlet before replying to you. However, the copies which you promised me in your letter have not arrived and I wonder whether they were addressed to some other place. I should greatly appreciate receiving a few more since I am naturally anxious to see the fine work which I am sure the printer did. If I can have a hundred or more copies, I shall deeply appreciate this additional favor.

Cordially yours,
