

Insert:

Last minute reports from New York indicate that the Cuban Government is being instigated from Puerto Rico to present this matter for discussion before the UN—but that the Cubans have not so far committed themselves to do this although they are admittedly considering it. The fact that the General Assembly is about to adjourn might postpone the submittance.