Dear Treasurer:

Section 303(c) of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971 (P.L. 92-225) states: "any change in information previously submitted in a statement of organization shall be reported to the supervisory officer within a ten-day period following the change." Our records indicate your Committee's Registration Form and Statement of Organization or the most recent amendment thereto was submitted on May 17, 1973. Therefore, because your record may not be current, the Clerk of the House, as a Supervisory Officer, requests that you promptly review your filings to determine if any amendments thereto are appropriate.

For example, your Committee's Registration Form currently reflects that your Committee is supporting candidates for the U.S. House of Representatives listed on the enclosed computer printout. Please carefully review the current and past activity of your Committee to determine whether or not any changes or corrections should be made. Enclosed for your convenience are forms that may prove suitable for your response. Please note that there are separate statutory requirements for calendar year 1972 and 1973 and an appropriate amendment form for each is enclosed. Any amendments you choose to make must be verified by the oath or affirmation of the treasurer filing the amendment.

If our office can be of any assistance to you, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Sincerely,

W. PAT JENNINGS, Clerk
U.S. House of Representatives
