Dear Dr. Morales:

Thank you ever so much for your willingness to be one of our readers of the enclosed manuscript on "The Puerto Rican Question" by Jorge Heine and Juan M. García-Passalacqua.

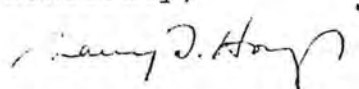

The Headline Series, as you may recall, is published five times a year. Each issue deals with a single topic. The main readership consists of people who take a serious interest in the subject but are not experts on it.

We would appreciate your specific comments--in the form of marginal notes or whatever is most convenient to you--wherever you see problems of accuracy, interpretation or balance.

If you could call me when you are in New York in mid-December, I could pick up your comments at your convenience. My number is 481-8468.

Again, many thanks for your generous assistance. And please be frank and critical. We protect the identities of our reviewers.

Sincerely,

Nancy L. Hoepfli
