Maltbie D. Babcock

This is my Father's world, The birds their carols raise,
The morning light, the lily white, Declare their Maker's praise.
This is my Father's world, He shines in all that's fair;
In the rustling grass I hear Him pass, He speaks to me every (where.

This is my Father's World, And to my list'ning ears,
All nature sings, and rounds me rings The music of the spheres.
This is my Father's World, I rest me in the thought.
Of rocks and trees, of skies and seas - His hand the wonders (wrought.

This is my Father's World, O let me ne'er forget,
That though the wrong seems oft so strong, God is the Ruler yet.
This is my Father's World. The battle is not done,
Jesus who died shall be satisfied, And earth and heav'n be one.

Copies may be obtained from Mrs. Laura Irizarry de Bover, Secretary of the Alumni Association

An exhibit of handicraft work done under the Industrial Project Plan can be seen at Borinquen Hall from 9:30 A. M. on through the day. The plan, which has been in operation only six weeks, already has many tangible evidences to indicate its success. Some of the projects under weigh are linens for the dining room, decorations for Borinquen Sala and Women's rest room at Sience Hall, and supplies for a gift shop at Costello. For a more detailed account of the plan, see the article in "The Polygraph" or ask for an outline at the office
