

March 2, 1945

Dear Boyd and Rachel,

These flowers are a small expression of the love and esteem we hold for you two. And with them we wish to personally express our admiration for the loyalty and sacrificial service you have so generously given to this school and island. It has been our very great joy and privilege to work and live with such dear friends.

Lovingly,

Oliver and Ted.