INVOCATION AND THE LORD'S PRAYER

HYMN NO. 40 "Our God, Our Help in Ages Past" Watts

RESPONSIVE READING Led by Dr. Jameson M. Jones

Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that built it.

For every house is builded by someone, but he that built all things is God.

Everyone therefore that heareth these words of mine, and doeth them, shall be likened unto a wise man, who built his house upon a rock;

And the rain descended, and the floods came, and winds blew, and beat upon the house; and it fell not, for it was founded upon the rock.

According to the grade of God which was given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder I laid a foundation; and another buildeth thereon.

For other foundation can no man lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

If any man's work shall abide which he built thereon, he shall receive a reward.

By faith he became a sojourner in the land of promise, and in a land not his own, dwelling in tents, with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise.

For he looked for the city which hath the foundations whose builder and maker is God.

For we know that if the earthly house of our tabernacle is dissolved, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal, in the heavens.

For behold, I create new heavens and a new earth; and they shall build houses, and inhabit them.

They shall not labor invain, nor bring forth for calamity; for they are the seed of the blessed of the Lord and their offspring with Them.
