IAU Report for week
of November 14, 1966

From: Wayne Wasson

Alumni

There was a meeting of the Arecibo Alumni on November 17. Attendance was excellent, with 40 members turning out. Dr. Hoxeng addressed the meeting, described the progress of the University to date, outlined the new Development Program, and emphasized the importance of the Alumni support for the institution.

Government Grants

Four applications have been submitted under Title 3 of the 1963 Act for Loans, for construction of the University School, the library, faculty housing and the sports area.

Campaign Organization

Dr. Hoxeng and Mr. Descartes of the Board of Trustees have been actively engaged in recruiting top leadership for the campaign organization. One of the top candidates will give his decision of acceptance by December 2 or 3.

President's Council

There will be a general meeting of the President's Council on December 6, at which time officers will be elected and members assigned to committees. The Council now has 43 members, and it is anticipated there will be 50 members by December 6.

Campaign materials

A statement for the Development Program has now been printed in both English and Spanish. The shooting for the sound slides is under way,
