Bill Signed to Delay Puerto Rico Plebiscite

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico, Jan. 20 (AP).—Gov. Luis Munoz Marin last night signed a bill calling off a plebiscite scheduled for Monday on a new constitution for Puerto Rico.

The bill provides that the legislature fix a new date later. The constitutional assembly that is drafting the new charter still is at work and a spokesman said the members hope to complete the task this week. It has been on the job since September.
