Programme of Action for the Full Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY,
Having decided to hold a special commemorative session on the occasion of the tenth anniversary of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples,
Considering that, by arousing world public opinion and promoting practical action for the speedy liquidation of colonialism, in all its forms and manifestations, the Declaration has played and will continue to play an important role in assisting the peoples under colonial domination in their struggle for freedom and independence,
Conscious of the fact that, although many colonial countries and peoples have achieved freedom and independence in the last ten years, the system of colonialism continues to exist in many areas of the world,
Reaffirming that all peoples have the right to self-determination and independence and that the subjection of the peoples to alien domination constitutes a serious impediment to the maintenance of international peace and security and the development of peaceful relations among nations,
1. Declares the further continuation of colonialism in all its forms and manifestations a crime which constitutes a violation of the Charter of the United Nations, the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples and the principles of international law;
2. Restates the inherent right of colonial peoples to struggle by all necessary means at their disposal against colonial Powers which suppress their aspiration for freedom and independence;
3. Adopts the following programme of action to assist in the full implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples:
   (1) Member States shall do their utmost to promote, in the United Nations and in the international institutions and organizations within the United Nations system, effective measures for the full implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples in all Trust Territories, Non-Self-Governing Territories and other colonial Territories, large and small, including the adoption by the Security Council of effective measures against Governments and regimes which engage in any form of repression of colonial peoples, which would seriously impede the maintenance of international peace and security.
   (2) Member States shall render all necessary moral and material assistance to the peoples of colonial Territories in their struggle to attain freedom and independence.
   (3) (a) Member States shall intensify their efforts to promote the implementation of the resolutions of the General Assembly and the Security Council relating to Territories under colonial domination.
   (b) In this connexion, the General Assembly draws the attention of the Security Council to the need to co-ordinate its efforts more closely with those of the Special Committee on Belgium under Article 41 of the Charter of the United Nations.
(4) Member States shall wage a vigorous and sustained campaign against activities and practices of foreign economic, financial and cultural unity of the peoples under colonial domination.
   (5) Member States shall carry out a sustained and vigorous campaign against all military, economic, and other forms of aid received by the above-mentioned regimes, which enables them to persist in their policy of colonial domination.
   (6) All freedom fighters under detention shall be treated in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Geneva Convention relative to the Treatment of Prisoners of War of 12 August 1949.
   (b) The specialized agencies and international institutions associated with the United Nations shall intensify their activities related to the implementation of resolution 1514 (XV).
(7) All States shall undertake measures aimed at raising the public awareness of the need for active assistance in the achievement of complete decolonization and, in particular, creating suitable conditions for activities by national and international non-governmental organizations in support of the peoples under colonial domination.
   (8) The United Nations as well as all States shall intensify their efforts in the field of public information and education and the area of decolonization through all media, including publications, of imposing fully and unconditionally, under international supervision, an embargo on arms of all kinds to the Government of South Africa and the illegal régime of Southern Rhodesia;
   (c) The General Assembly urges Member States to assist in the implementation of resolution 1016 (XVIII) of 14 December 1960 and its own resolutions, and in particular:
      (i) To widen the scope of the sanctions against the illegal régime of Southern Rhodesia by declaring mandatory all the measures contained in Article 41 of the Charter of the United Nations;
      (ii) To give special consideration to the question of imposing sanctions upon South Africa and Portugal, in view of their refusal to carry out the relevant decisions of the Security Council; and
      (iii) To give urgent consideration, with a view to promoting the speedy liquidation of colonialism, to the question of radio and television. Of special importance will be programmes relating to United Nations activities on decolonization, the situation in colonial Territories and the struggle being waged by colonial peoples and the national liberation movements.

(9) The Special Committee on the Situation with regard to the Implementation of the Declaration on the Granting of Independence to Colonial Countries and Peoples shall continue to examine the full compliance of all States with the Declaration and with other relevant resolutions on the question of decolonization. The question of territorial size, geographical isolation and limited resources should in no way delay the implementation of the Declaration. Where resolution 1514 (XV) has not been fully implemented with regard to a given Territory, the General Assembly shall continue to bear responsibility for that Territory until such time as the people concerned has had an opportunity to exercise freely its right to self-determination and independence in accordance with the Declaration. The Special Committee is hereby directed:

(a) To continue to assist the General Assembly in finding the best ways and means for the final liquidation of colonialism;

(b) To continue to give special consideration to the views expressed orally or in written communications by representatives of the peoples in the colonial Territories;

(c) To continue to send visiting missions to the colonial Territories and to hold meetings at places where it can best obtain first-hand information on the situation in colonial Territories, as well as to continue to hold meetings away from Headquarters as appropriate;

(d) To assist the General Assembly in making arrangements, in co-operation with the administering Powers, for securing a United Nations presence in the colonial Territories to participate in the elaboration of the procedural measures for the implementation of the Declaration and to observe the final stages of the process of decolonization in the Territories;

(e) To prepare draft rules and regulations for visiting missions for approval by the General Assembly.

Resolution 2621 (XXV) was adopted by a vote of 86 Member States in favour to 5 against (Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, United Kingdom, United States), with 15 abstentions (Austria, Belgium, Canada, Denmark, Finland, Iceland, Italy, Japan, Luxembourg, Malawi, Netherlands, Norway, Spain, Swaziland, Sweden).
